Monthly Live Q & A Coaching Sessions

This will be a live session held once a month check website calendar for date and time. You will also be sent an email. The session will be voice recorded for you. Of course you will gain the most by participating and being able to ask your own urgent questions.

I will start with a subject offered in discussion boards so be sure and participate. Although I consider myself highly knowledgeable in many subjects. Fellow members have tons of valuable information, skills and feedback to share and it's awesome to share your experiences and knowledge too. Reminders will be sent prior to the sessions but it's always good to put it on your calendar. It's also good to prepare Questions ahead of time.
