

Monthly Leadership Development:

Each month we will explore the following skills. “Leadership is not a position or a title it is actions and an examples.”

There are many different leadership skills required in the workplace, as a business owner here are important ones. On a scale of 1-10 how would you rate yourself?

- Active listening
- Empathy
- The ability to share clear messages and make complex ideas easy to understand for everyone
- Strategic thinking skills
- Creativity
- The ability to inspire and convince others
- Flexibility
- The ability to turn information into action
- Project planning
- Active listening
- The ability to assess employees’ strengths and weaknesses
- Business storytelling
- Time management
- The ability to build trust
- Strong communication skills
- Positivity
- Reliability
- Management skills
- The ability to align the employees with the company values and goals
- A strong leadership vision
- Recruiting skills
- Persuasion skills
- The ability to help employees find meaning at work